

FALL 2024

ANTH 204

FROM AYAHUASCA TO ZOLOFT:

Anthropological Perspectives on Drugs and Drug Use

MWF - 11:15am-12:05pm

Lecture meets twice a week (usually MW) + recitation section

Taught by Dr. Morgan Hoke

Meets Medical Anthropology Major Research Methods
requirement & FC-GLOBAL & RESEARCH requirements

Email mkhoke@unc.edu
for more info

Ever wonder why some naturally occurring plants are illegal while other extremely harmful, lab-created substances are perfectly legal? Who decides what is a drug? What is the relationship between drugs and religion and spirituality? How have our perspectives on drugs changed over time? What role did drugs play in our evolution as humans? If you have ever asked any of these questions, this class is for you!