

Osteology in the Carolinas

Spring Meeting February 8, 2014
Hyde Hall, UNC Chapel Hill Campus
Conversation 9-10 AM
Presentations 10-12AM; 1:30-4 PM
Open to anyone

A gathering focused on the analysis and interpretation of human skeletal remains from contexts pertinent to bioarchaeology, forensic anthropology, and paleoanthropology.

Grateful thanks are extended for funding for the spring meeting by the Department of Anthropology (UNC & Appalachian State University), Institute for Arts and Humanities, and Research Laboratories of Archaeology.
